CULTURAL AFFAIRS FOUNDATION

Program Descriptions

Unrestricted Support

For Fiscal Year 2013/2014, Unrestricted Donations may support the Veterans Memorial Auditorium Cultural Enhancement Fund or other Cultural programming in the City as recommended by the Cultural Affairs Foundation Board and approved by the City Council.

2014 Culver City Music Festival

The Culver City Music Festival is an annual summer series which is produced by Gary Mandell of Boulevard Music and presented in the City Hall Courtyard. The series, which attracts hundreds of people to each concert, features World Music and authentic American sounds.

Made in Culver City

Made in Culver City celebrates the golden classics that were produced in “The Heart of Screenland”. The annual screening, which commemorates the City’s anniversary of incorporation, is presented in association with the UCLA Film & Television Archive.

Music in the Chambers

Music in the Chambers, a classical concert program, is presented with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Association and features members of the Los Angeles Philharmonic. This free “Neighborhood Chamber Music Concert”, a program of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, is presented annually in the wintertime in the Mike Balkman Council Chambers at City Hall and cablecast live.

Performing Arts Grant Program

Established in 1994, the Culver City Performing Arts Grant Program offers grants to performing arts organizations in Los Angeles County. Under the purview of the City Council and the Cultural Affairs Commission, the Performing Arts Grant Program is designed to support arts organizations and to bring distinguished cultural programming to Culver City.
