

Those Things Your Grandkids Know

The Culver City Senior Center offered a series of seminars for members titled “Those Things Your Grandkids Know” every Thursday afternoon in September from 1-2 p.m., talking about the basics of social networking and other online computer tools. Each presentation attracted ‘standing room only’ attendance and excellent feedback from our members. The dates and topics were:

Thursday, Sept. 8, You’ve Got a Friend, Facebook 101

Thursday, Sept. 15, What the Tweet?, Twitter & Tumblr 101

Thursday, Sept. 22, iUsed to Listen to Records, iTunes 101

Thursday, Sept. 29, The Heart of Internet Screenland, Culver City Online Resources 101

These presentations were designed and presented by a dedicated group of student volunteers including project lead Christina Garvey from Antioch University, Priyanjali Castelino Shadrach, and Kristi Littleton from Culver High, now attending the University of Pennsylvania.
