

Free Ride on

Culver
CITYBUS

For Bike to Work Day!!!!

May is National Bike Month and May 15-19 is Bike Week LA! Bike Week LA encourages cycling and raises awareness about bicycle and pedestrian safety throughout LA County. Join Culver CityBus and all the local bicycle commuters to celebrate Bike to Work Day on Thursday, May 17. On that day, bring your bike, folding bike or helmet on board a Culver CityBus and you can ride for free. You heard that right F-R-E-E!

Tell your friends and make sure you join us on the bus on Bike to Work Day.

New to biking? Here are some helpful resources:

- Read our tips for bringing your bike on board here.
- Find out about biking in Culver City at BikeCulverCity.org
- Visit our Bike to Work Day Pit Stop on Thursday, May 17th, 7 AM - 9 AM BikeCulverCity, the City of Culver City, and Culver CityBus will be out supporting bike commuters on their way to work with a pit stop at the Duquesne entrance to the Ballona Creek Bike Path. Come by to say hello to friendly volunteers, pick up some coffee and goodies, and check out the new bike left turn lane installed on Duquesne this month.
- To see a map of Bike to Work Day pit stops all across Los Angeles County, go to: <https://www.metro.net/riding/bike-month/>