Fraud, Waste and Abuse Hotline

Report for the Quarter ending December 31, 2022

Activity and Accomplishments

This report summarizes the cases reported in the second quarter of FY 2022/2023. During this quarter, the fraud, waste, and abuse hotline received two new cases and was able to close three cases. There is one pending case from the previous quarter.

In the upcoming quarter, the Fraud, Waste, and Abuse informational newsletter will be distributed again to the Community and City staff. The outreach will also be done through social networks through GovDelivery, the bulletin boards located at City Hall, and the City website. For more information, please visit the Report Fraud, Waste, and Abuse of City Resources webpage.
