Covid-19 Update: Second Bivalent Boosters Available to Seniors

The Los Angeles County Department of Public Health (Public Health) is asking everyone to check and make sure they have the most up-to-date protection available. If seniors have not received their first dose of the updated, bivalent booster which was released last Fall (September 2022) they are overdue and should consider getting it soon. For seniors and immunocompromised people who already received a first dose of the updated, bivalent booster last Fall, they are now eligible to receive a second dose of the booster which will keep them well protected throughout the coming summer months when there is a spike in transmission because traveling and gatherings increase. Seniors can receive the second dose, 4 months after receiving the first dose and immunocompromised people can receive the second dose 2 months after the first dose.

Public Health is offering bivalent vaccines and boosters to eligible residents at no cost, whether or not you have insurance, at hundreds of locations throughout Los Angeles County. Vaccination locations and appointments can be found at VaccinateLACounty.com or VacunateLosAngeles.com (en español) or by calling 1-833-540-0473.

For residents who have difficulties leaving their home, Public Health offers free in-home COVID-19 vaccine and booster appointments. Appointments may be booked at ph.lacounty.gov/vaxathome or by calling the Public Health COVID-19 Call Center at 1-833-540-0473.

Thank you for understanding!

Adventures with Doug - Adventure to Eagle Rock

On the northern Oregon border, sparkling creeks meander through lush canyons to join the mighty Columbia River. Hidden waterfalls crash down. Pristine wilderness surrounds. Amid all this beauty, maybe the most magnificent area is Eagle Creek, winding its way through a wonderland of green. Up canyon, far from the crowds below, two waterfalls make it even more special: Tunnel and Twister. I could barely wait to get to one in particular as the name made it sound amazing. And it didn’t disappoint! But the other one turned out to be even more spectacular! Do you want to guess which of the two I ended up liking the best? Join us for our slide show adventure, filled with fun stories and amazing scenery, as we visit this sensational canyon. And we’ll see one of my new favorite waterfalls.Open to CCSCA members only.
